Mayor of Rocklin appointed to League of California Cities Post

ROCKLIN – Rocklin Mayor Kathy Lund has been appointed to the Transportation, Communication and Public Works Policy Committee for the League of California Cities. The League of California Cities is one of the State's foremost organizations for city officials, providing them a forum to discuss and influence policy decisions on statewide and local levels. This marks the seventh year she has been invited to sit on this committee.

"On behalf of the Board of Directors and members of the League of California Cities, I extend our congratulations and support," said John Russo, President of the League of California Cities in a letter to Mayor Lund. "We appreciate and need your counsel and leadership in League affairs."

In addition to her official duties on the Rocklin City Council, Mayor Lund has played a significant role influencing public works decisions throughout Placer County as a member of the Placer County Transportation and Planning Agency. The experience she gained working as a part of this local agency has made her a valuable addition to the League of California Cities Transportation, Communication and Public Works Policy Committee. Her work with the League of California Cities has had a notable influence on Rocklin's proactive approach to address policy issues at the forefront of California's growth.

"Serving on this committee for the last six years has given me tremendous insight to important issues facing our state and local community," Mayor Lund said. "This experience demonstrates Rocklin's commitment to proactively work with our regional partners to improve issues such as traffic congestion, utility abuse and public works accountability. I look forward to continuing my work with the committee in the coming year."

Mayor Lund moved to Rocklin over 26 years ago and has since served her community through various organizations such as the Placer County Child Abuse Prevention Council, the Friends of the Library and the Rocklin Centennial Committee. Lund has served for many years on the City Council in Rocklin, including four terms as City Mayor.
